

Bundaberg Regional Libraries

First 5 Forever programme

BUNDABERG REGIONAL
Libraries

F5F Project Officer Tami Boas - 6 month contract

Tami's brief

- Engage with library patrons
- Promote the F5F message at events
- Partner with community groups
- Develop new programs
- Plan a Dad's Read event
- Deliver F5F workshops
- Work with existing Youth staff
- Develop an e-magazine and Instagram page

May - June

Family and Baby Network in the Park

Welcome Baby Celebrations

Playvan at Gin Gin

Family and Baby Network in the Park

July - August

Childers Multicultural Festival

Childers Literacy Day

Childers Literacy Day

August - September

F5F radio promotion

A 2 month promotional campaign with 4BU Radio

- Radio ads run every day at different times,
- including 5 reading tips
- Banner across top of 4BU website

September - October

Bundy Flavours Festival

Children's Protection Week

ATSI in the Park

Rainbow Day

Aqua Bubs

October

• Aqua Bubs

• Birth and Beyond

Coming to Bundaberg Library weekly on Thursdays from 9:30-12:30pm.
Commences 8 October 2015

Wide Bay Hospital & Health Service

Birth and Beyond

Information on the go by Margaret Rose Centre Child Health Nurses
(no appointment necessary)
Bundaberg Library Meeting Room

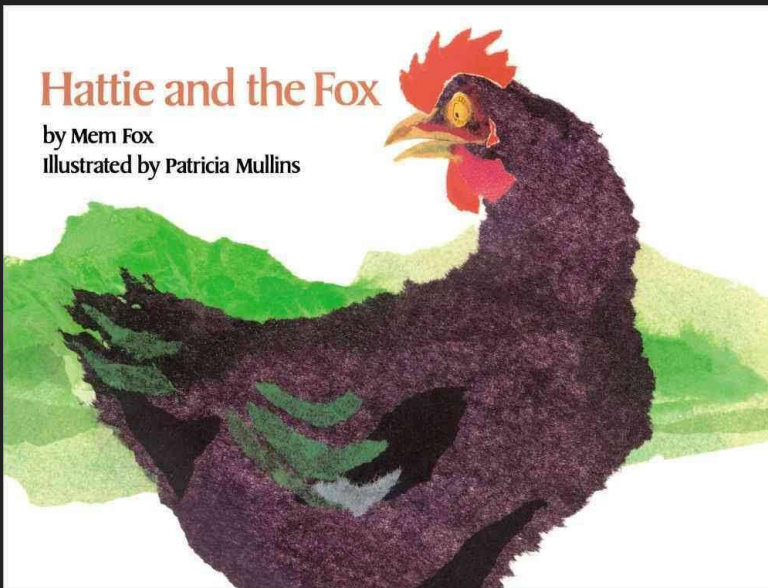

- Let's share the trials and triumphs of Infant/Toddlerhood/Preschool.
- An opportunity exists in an informal setting to discuss this stage of development 0-5yrs.
- Toileting, Tantrums, Fussy Eating, Speech Development, Sleep, Growth and Development... and whatever you would like to discuss

Supported by: Wide Bay Hospital & Health Service, State Library FSF
Literacy Programme, Bundaberg Regional Libraries.

November - February

One picture book One town

Working with the Family and Baby Network, across all Childcare Centres and Preschools.

Promoting one picture book for everyone to read.

Booked Mem Fox to come to Bundaberg next February to talk to parents about Literacy.

first5forever

Hattie and the Fox Show

Come along and enjoy a morning of songs, fun and Mem Fox's famous book 'Hattie and the Fox'.

Popular children's musician and storyteller Renata Jayne will be retelling Hattie and the Fox with her famous dressup suitcase.

Bundaberg Library
Friday November 20th
10:30—12:00pm
No bookings necessary

 BUNDABERG REGIONAL Libraries