What's next for Trove Partner services and engaging the Trove Community

16 OCTOBER 2026

Nikki Darby, Director Trove Partnerships

Jenny Ostini, Director Trove Community Services

NATIONAL LIBRARY OF AUSTRALIA

TROVE Partners

We acknowledge the Australian Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples of this nation. We acknowledge the traditional custodians of the land and pay our respects to ancestors and Elders, past and present.

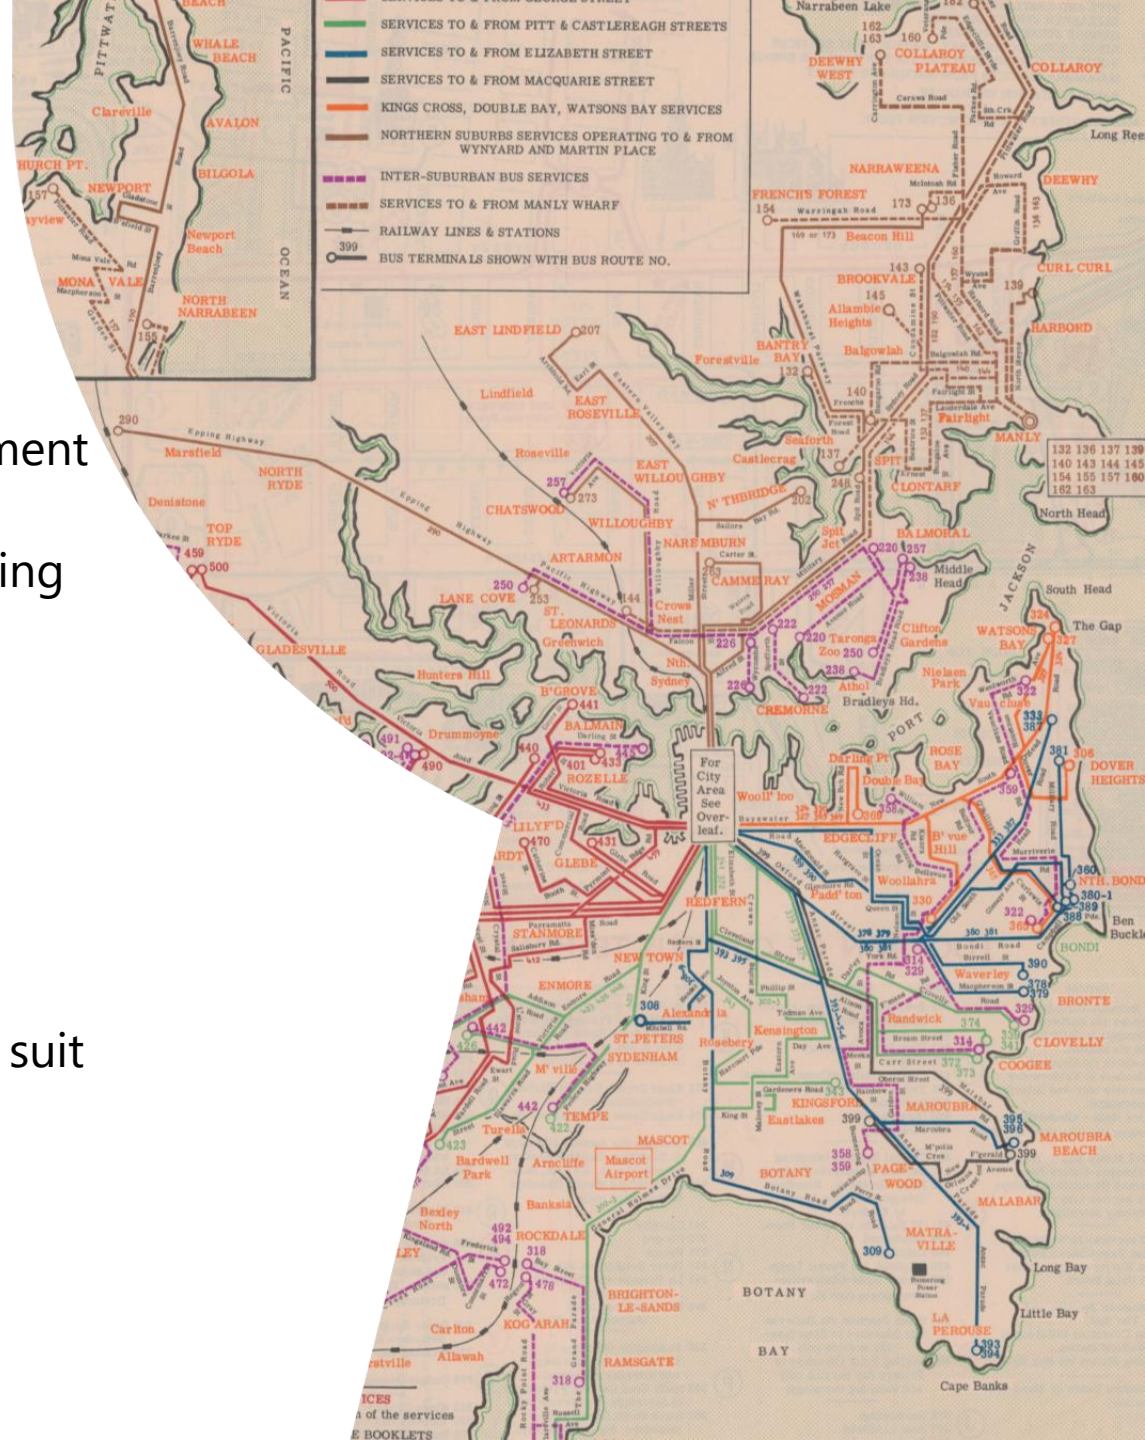
We are committed to honouring Australian Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples' unique cultural and spiritual relationships to the land, waters and seas and their rich contribution to society.

Trove Partner Services

Custom-built solution for management of the ANBD

Linked data platform built on Bibframe

- Continuing to enhance the service through partner engagement
- Ensures interoperability and long-term sustainability improving data ingests through automation
- Maintain version history and good data governance for accountability
- Format-agnostic, linked-data platform
- Ability to evolve with changing technology Hybrid model to suit partner workflows



New South Wales. Department of Government Transport, issuing body. (1961). Sydney : official guide to bus services
National Library of Australia
http://nla.gov.au/nla.obj-482382200

Highly automated

99.9% of contributed records received via automatic daily harvesting updates

Cataloguing

- 9 cataloguing templates available in the Trove Partners Cataloguing tool (rare books, posters, kit, notated music, photographs, maps, serials, objects and projected medium)

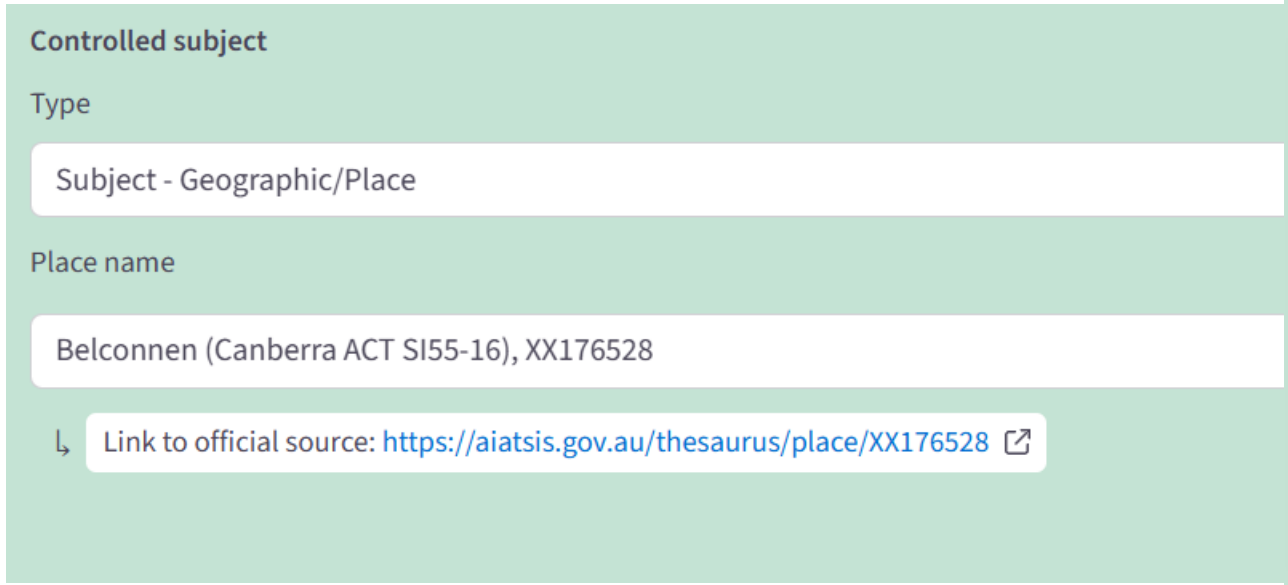
- Capability to capture rare books metadata requirements.

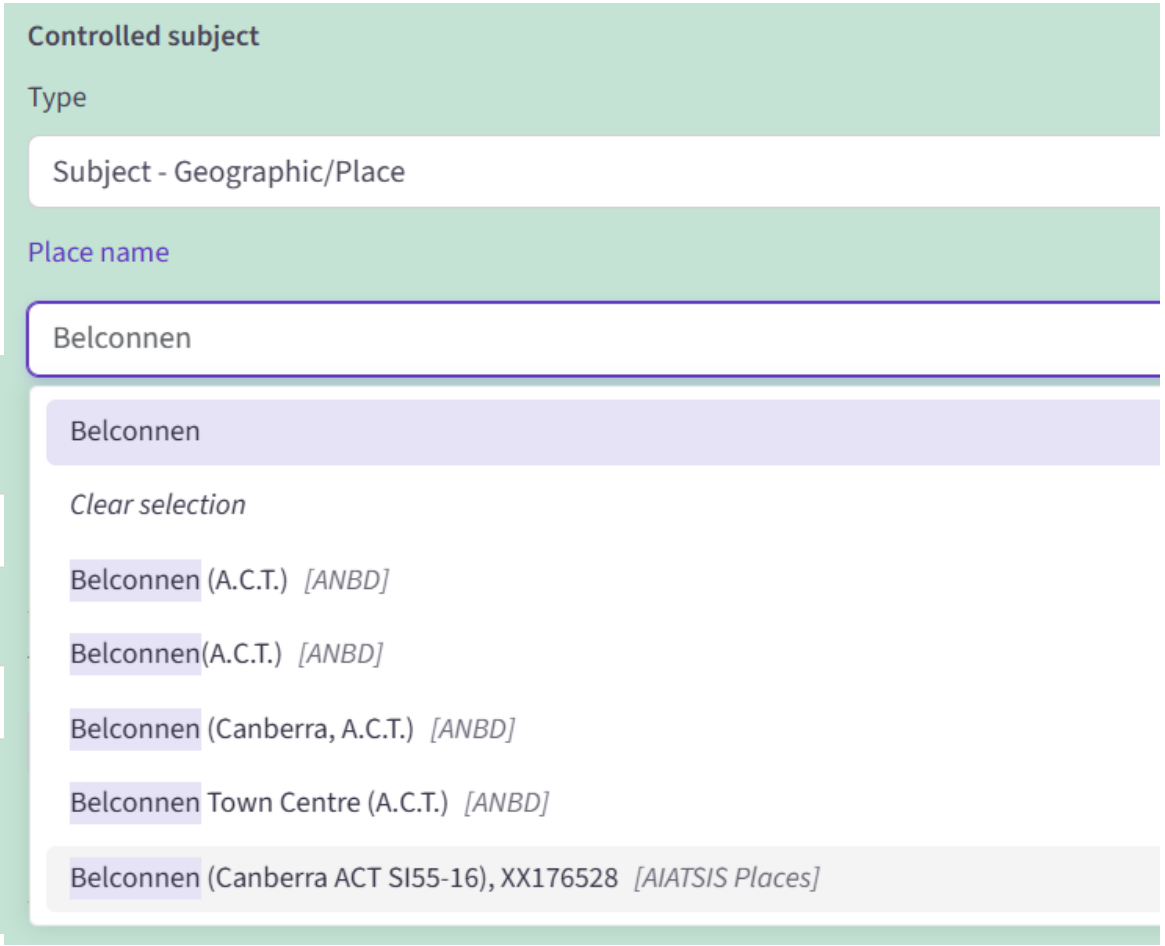
Farm machinery in Australia, 1978
Wolfgang Sievers
National Library of Australia
https://nla.gov.au/nla.obj-161448647/view

Integration of the AIATSIS thesauri

Data linking functionality

- Partnered with AIATSIS to integrate the AIATSIS controlled vocabularies into the Trove Partner Cataloguing Tool.
- Joint webinar held with AIATSIS showcasing new functionality.





National resource sharing platform

- A national resource sharing service supporting equitable sharing across jurisdictions
- Completely integrated with the Australian National Bibliographic Database
- An open-source software solution tailored to the Australian environment
- Reciprocal service with defined networks
- Automatic request routing system based on automatic load balancing
- High-level engagement from the Resource Sharing community

Principles and service enhancement pipeline

Principles and Values

- New set of TPRS principles and values complement existing Service Guidelines

Enhancement pipeline

- Partner feedback is being reviewed and prioritised to shape a forward release roadmap, giving greater visibility of planned improvements and the future direction of the service.

- Advocacy through ReShare Product Committee and implementation partner CAVAL.

TPRS Principles and Values

TROVE Partners RESOURCE SHARING

National
Facilitates interlibrary loan for Trove Partners in all Australian states and territories

Collaborative
Formed by a collective of Partners who work together, contribute their feedback and user experience, and support the evolution of the service

Community
Participants provide access to their own unique collections and in turn gain access to National collections for their patrons

Consistent
Underpinned by a robust and secure system, and facilitated by a transparent operating framework with clear service expectations and guidelines

Trusted
Reliable, and supports delivery of interlibrary loan for libraries and their patrons and complies with governing legislation, including the Copyright Act 1968

Service
Supports Australian best practice for interlibrary lending, aligns with the ALIA Interlibrary Resource Sharing Code (ILRS), and advocates for evolution within the international ReShare community

Equitable
Acknowledges differing capacity and needs within the library sectors and supports resource sharing across jurisdictions

Respectful
Recognises the rights and responsibilities of all participants to contribute to and benefit from participation.

Innovative
Commitment to continuous improvement to deliver value and shape a contemporary and efficient service

Authentication and Identity Management (AIM)

Introduction of Multifactor Authentication for Partners

The AIM project will replace several existing authentication systems with a single modern, secure platform, delivering a more seamless and consistent experience.

- Introduce single sign-on capabilities
- Strengthening security through the implementation of multi-factor authentication
- Scheduled for release in early 2027
- More detailed information in October.

Trove Stories

CONTRIBUTING STORIES THAT HIGHLIGHT TROVE EXPERIENCES

Trove Stories is a gallery of stories

A place to see yourself in Trove

A place to inspire other people to share their stories

write a message
TO OUR
Matildas

Trove Stories is also:

A research project to inform development of Trove through understanding how and for what people search.

Submit your Trove Story

Tell us your Trove Story. Share images and Trove links for others to enjoy in our gallery.

"Dear Matildas" cart at the screening of the Australia vs Ireland FIFA Women's World Cup match at the Camperdown Memorial Rest Park, New South Wales, 20 July
Greg Power
National Library of Australia
https://trove.nla.gov.au/work/256377768

Testing family narratives against the archive

Along the tracks of Cobb and Co.

Inspiring young readers to look up and discover Melbourne's Skipping Girl

Connecting Communities Through Trove Lists: Discovering Translated Australian Books

The Case of Nie’s Refusal: Gender, Law and Consent in the Shadow of Pacific Slavery

Connecting Communities through Trove Lists: Discovering Translated Australian Books

“Sometimes the stories we share across languages are the ones that bring us closer together.”

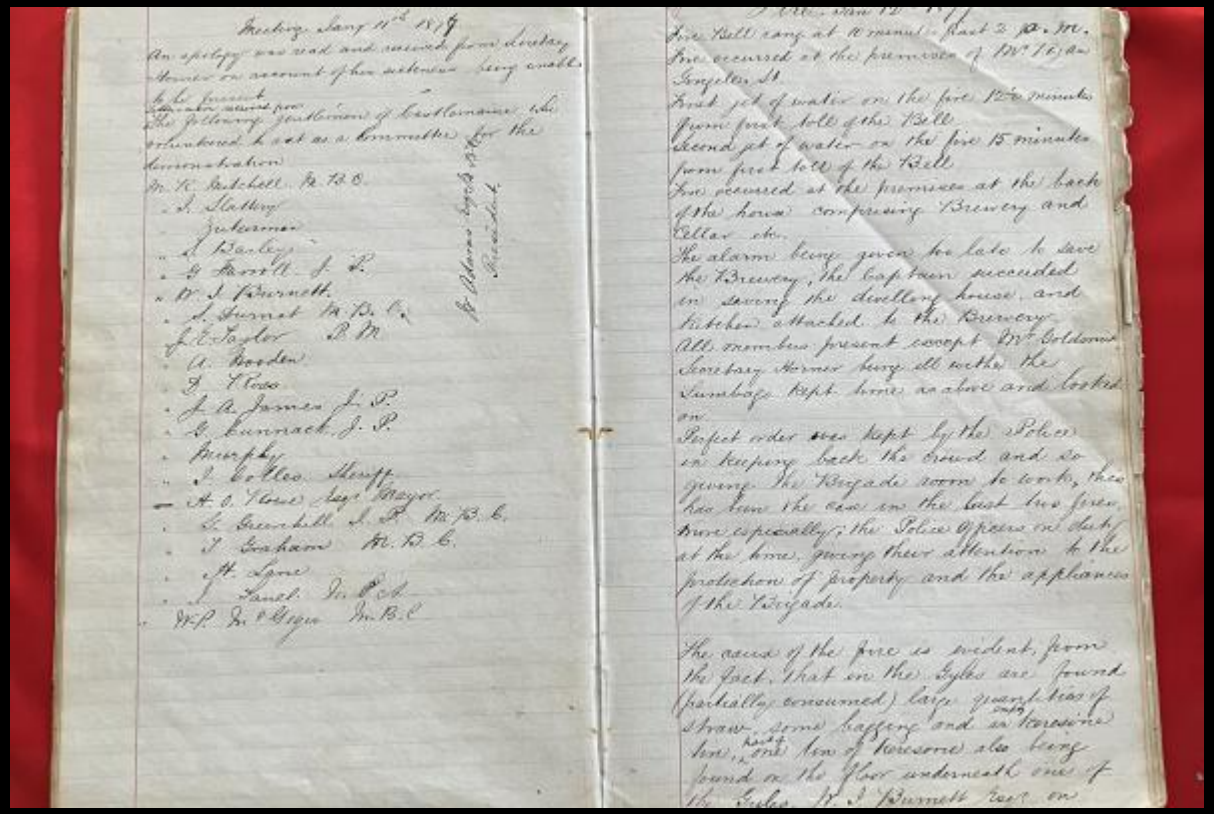
Joey Chung & Alice Chik

Audrey Skips

“Spending time reading historic images and accounts helped me write a reimagined story of The Skipping Girl, weaving in a narrative around tough times and hope, and how civic efforts lead to enduring legacies.”

Andrea Rowe

Preserving a community history of bushfire



“Australia's bushfire history is…scattered across historic newspaper reporting [and] community archives…By preserving and connecting them, we can protect an extraordinary legacy of volunteer service [and] fill one of the largest remaining gaps in our historical understanding of bushfires.”

Dr. Fiannuala Morgan

Solving the Myth of a Father, Grandfather and Great Grandfather Who Disappeared into Thin Air

"...a baby was burned in a fire... and he left"

“This one little snippet of information entered into a Trove search of Queensland newspapers opened up an amazing and terrifically sad story of my brave, great grandfather who tried to rescue his small baby son from a fire.”

Sonya McMillan

TROVE Stories

Letters to be sent from fans to the Matildas at the screening of the Australia vs Ireland FIFA Women's World Cup match at the Camperdown Memorial Rest Park, New South Wales, 20 July
Greg Power
National Library of Australia
https://trove.nla.gov.au/work/256377769

Any Questions?